Renominated.

Local politicians consider the naming of the Tammany Hall slate for next Fall's election about the easiest bit of guesswork they have ountered for years.

The Wigwam nominations for four of the most important places have already been discounted by appelnuments by Gov. Hill at the request of the organization to till inter-election vacancies.

Given these four nominations as a certainty, the experienced politician can tell almost to a nicety how the balance of the ticket must be arranged to satisfy sections Here is the Tammany ticket which they

The most destrable position in the department to the minds of these sectors after place are the dockmasterships, and there has been a small army of applicants for them. There are no vacancies, but it is not considered a difficult matter to make them, and there are said to be at loast fifty braves who are going about declaring that they have been premised appointment as dockmasters. As many of the dockmasters are relatives or friends of Republican state Senators, to whom the Dock Commissioners are said to have been beholden for legislation, it is suggested that but new vacancies will be created, and that there will be a wailing lot of disagreement the Seventy-first Regiment this pointed applicants in a new weeks when it is nted applicants in a few weeks when it is nd that there is no room for them in the
